July 17, 2026 Meeting Minutes

- a. The group discussed the inspectional support budget realities for FY27. Wellesley offered to support communities with Title 5 septic plan review training, including Dedham, should they require additional support during Q1.
- b. Aine Studdert-Kennedy committed to sharing the executed MoJin Solutions and LandTech Consultants contracts, as well as the updated fee schedules, with communities following the meeting.

A motion was made to provide each member community with an allocation of $4,400 for the fiscal year to be used for Food Protection and Title 5 inspectional support. The Coalition will review spending at least quarterly and may reallocate funds based on community need, available funding, and Coalition approval.

Stacey lane led the motion. Meg Goldstein second the motion.
